If you do not have one of the forms of photo ID listed above, please sign the Acknowledgement of No Photo ID on the One-stop Application or Authorization to Vote form. You will be given instructions on how you can obtain a No-fee Photo ID from the North Carolina DMV.

IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR FIRST-TIME VOTERS

Federal law (Help America Vote Act of 2002) and state law (GS § 163-166.12) set requirements for certain voters to show identification when they vote. These requirements apply to any voter who has:

- 1) Newly registered to vote in a county.
- 2) Has not previously voted in an election that includes a ballot item for federal office in North Carolina.
- 3) Did not provide on their voter registration application, a valid North Carolina driver license number or the last four digits of their social security number, or did not provide a copy of an identification document when the application was submitted.

These first-time voters must present to a local election official one of the following:

- 1) A current and valid photo identification.
- 2) A copy of one of the following documents that shows the name and address of the voter: a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document.

VOTING IN CORRECT PRECINCT

North Carolina law requires voters to vote in their proper precinct based on the address where they have resided for at least 30 days before the date of an election.

GS § 163-55(a)

Every person born in the United States, and every person who has been naturalized, and who shall have resided in the precinct in which the person offers to vote for 30 days next preceding an election, shall, if otherwise qualified, be qualified to vote in any election held in this State in the precinct in which the person resides. Removal from one precinct to another precinct shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct from which the person has removed until 30 days after the person's removal.
